SECTION 1

Purpose

1. The purpose of the Student Non-Academic Misconduct Policy is to uphold the wellbeing and safety of all students at the Institute of Health and Management's (IHM's), and to clearly define behaviours that constitute non-academic misconduct by students against the IHM community.
2. This Policy sets out principles for managing non-academic misconduct in a fair, transparent, and consistent manner, in line with the IHM's student code of conduct and national higher education standards and ensures compliance with legal and regulatory requirements.

Scope

3. This Policy applies to the entire IHM community, including students across campuses, learning sites, online platforms, and study modes. It covers current, former, and prospective students in relation to alleged incidents of non-academic misconduct.
4. This Policy does not apply to:
 - 4.1 Academic misconduct, which is managed under the Academic Honesty and Integrity Policy and Procedure.
 - 4.2 Allegations of sexual assault or sexual harassment, managed under the Sexual Assault and Harassment Prevention and Response Policy and Procedure.
 - 4.3 Bullying and harassment, which are managed under the Bullying and Harassment Prevention Policy and Procedure.
 - 4.4 Student complaints, which are managed under the Student Complaints and Appeals Policy and Procedure (unless they involve student non-academic misconduct).
 - 4.5 Misconduct by staff members, which is managed under the Staff Code of Conduct and related policies.
5. This Policy should be read in conjunction with the IHM Academic Honesty and Integrity Policy and Procedure, Student Code of Conduct and Student Code of Conduct Implementation Guidelines.

Definitions

6. 'IHM community' includes all students, staff, visitors to campuses, and members of the public who are interacting, in an official capacity, with IHM in person, in writing, or online.

SECTION 2

Policy Principles

11. IHM is committed to providing a safe, respectful, and inclusive learning environment that supports the well-being of all students, staff, and all relevant stakeholders.
12. IHM promotes positive relationships and ensures that non-academic misconduct is addressed promptly, fairly, and in accordance with institutional policies and the law.
13. IHM's commitments include, but are not limited to:
 - 13.1 Ensuring students, staff and relevant personnel are aware of and comply with the Student Code of Conduct and related policies.
 - 13.2 Maintaining effective procedures for responding to non-academic misconduct.

- 13.3 Recording, monitoring, and reviewing incidents to improve practices.
- 13.4 Working collaboratively to resolve incidents of non-academic misconduct promptly and fairly.

Classification of Non-Academic Misconduct

14. Misconduct is classified as either General Non-Academic Misconduct or Serious Non-Academic Misconduct.

15. General Non-Academic Misconduct

16.1 General non-academic misconduct refers to less severe breaches of IHM's student code of conduct and standards, often arising from inappropriate, careless, or first-time behaviour that disrupts others or contravenes minor rules. Examples include, but are not limited to:

- 16.1.1 Minor disturbances in class, online, or at IHM activities that interfere with learning or teaching.
- 16.1.2 Immature, disruptive, or offensive behaviour in IHM venues or activities.
- 16.1.3 First instances of breaking or disregarding IHM rules or the Student Code of Conduct (excluded serious misconduct).
- 16.1.4 Unsafe behaviour that does not create a serious risk to others.
- 16.1.5 Behaviour that unintentionally causes offence or unacceptable disturbances to others.

16. Serious Non-Academic Misconduct

17.1 Serious non-academic misconduct involves significant or repeated breaches that endanger safety, well-being, property, or IHM's reputation, or that involve unlawful or intentionally deceptive conduct. Examples include but are not limited to:

- 17.1.1 Repeated or significant disruption during learning or IHM activities.
- 17.1.2 Showing deliberate disrespect or hostility towards staff, students, or visitors.
- 17.1.3 Assault, or aggressive behaviour in any IHM context.
- 17.1.4 Conduct creating a high-magnitude risk to health, safety, security, finances, reputation, or compliance obligations, as defined in IHM's Risk Management Framework.
- 17.1.5 Theft, vandalism, or intentional damage to IHM or personal property.
- 17.1.6 Attending IHM activities under the influence of, or in possession of, alcohol, drugs, or prohibited substances.
- 17.1.7 Possession of weapons or dangerous items on campus, placements, or IHM activities.
- 17.1.8 Discrimination or vilification based on age, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, marital or parental status, pregnancy, breastfeeding, race, ethnicity, religion, disability, or health status.

17.1.9 Fraudulent or deliberately deceptive activity, including falsifying documents or providing false information.

17.1.10 Smoking on IHM property outside designated areas.

17.1.11 Consuming alcohol on IHM property without authorisation.

Investigation and Resolution

17. All allegations will be investigated and complaints resolved in line with the Student Non-Academic Misconduct Procedure with procedural fairness.

18. Students have the right to appeal any decision made under this policy in accordance with the Student Complaints and Appeals Policy and Procedure.

Confidentiality

19. All investigations will be conducted with strict confidentiality, and all parties concerned have the right to privacy and confidentiality.

Reporting

20. Where non-academic misconduct allegations involve international students, IHM will also comply with all reporting obligations under the ESOS Act 2000 and National Code 2018.

21. Any allegation that involves a potential breach of criminal law will be immediately referred to the police or relevant authority.
